About Me

Hi, I'm Abdelhay , an 18-year-old passionate about programming and technology. I am currently learning various programming languages and developing my skills in software development. In addition to my technical pursuits, I enjoy writing inspirational content to motivate and inspire others . I am always eager to learn new things and take on challenging projects that help me grow both personally and professionally . My goal is to contribute to the tech community and make a positive impact through innovative solutions and creative thinking .

My Amazing Works

Most common methods for designing websites that work well on desktop is responsive and adaptive design

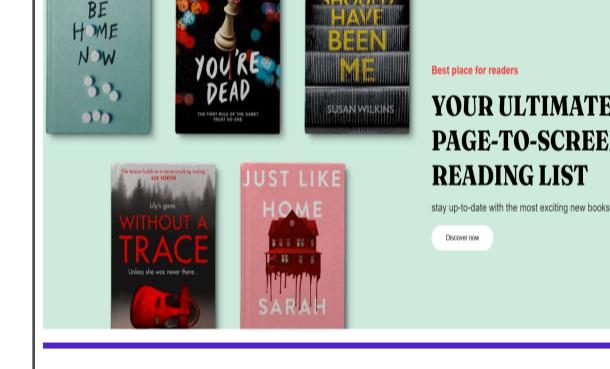

Restaurant of Tangier

A dynamic web application showcasing all restaurants in Tangier, with features like detailed restaurant pages, an admin panel for managing data, and a search bar for easy navigation.

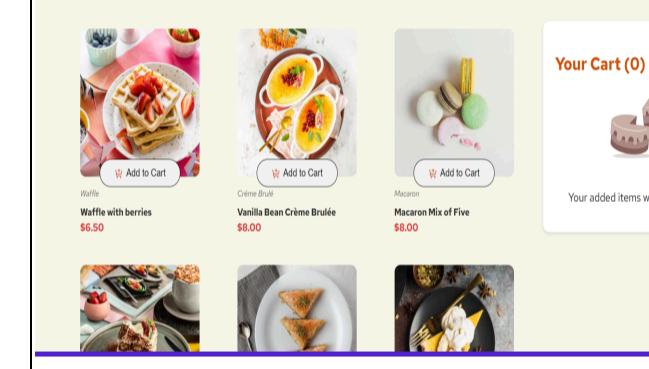

WeatherWise

WeatherWise is a weather application built with Tkinter. This app allows users to check the current weather conditions for various locations worldwide, displaying data such as temperature, humidity, wind speed, and atmospheric pressure.

WordHaven-Bookstore

An interactive and dynamic bookstore web application that fetches books from a JSON file, displays them with animations, allows users to add books to a wishlist, view detailed information, and explore related books by category.

cart-shopping

A simple and responsive dessert shop webpage built with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. Browse desserts, view prices, and simulate adding items to a shopping cart with a clean, modern design.
